WHERE TO STAY

BED-HOPPING WITH ZOE SALDANA

The star of Star Trek and Avatar tells Francesca Babb about her out-of-this-world hangouts

FOUR SEASONS HOTEL LOS ANGELES AT BEVERLY HILLS

'I go here with family and friends, enjoy amazing meals and always have a great time. That's the thing about living in LA: you don't have to go far for a getaway in a beautiful hotel. You can drive down the street, book a room at the Four Seasons and stay the night.' www.fourseasons.com/losangeles. Doubles from about £285

THE CARLYLE, NEW YORK

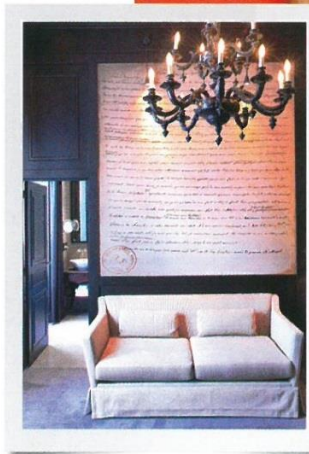

'Downtown Manhattan has changed so much it looks like any other city, like Toronto or Boston, and that saddens me. But uptown still has elements of what the city used to be: tough New Yorkers, great food, great service. The Carlyle reminds me of that, and I love the bedrooms.' www.rosewoodhotels.com/carlyle. Doubles from about £352

'ONCE YOU GET INTO THE LITTLE CORNERS OF MILAN, YOU FIND SUCH BEAUTY'

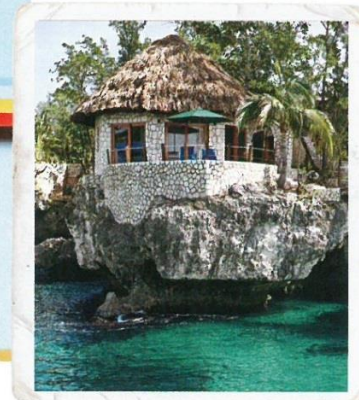

BULGARI HOTEL, MILAN

'Milan is where my husband grew up, so we go a lot. There's something about this hotel – perhaps because it's small and intimate in such an industrial city – that always makes me feel like I'm on holiday. With its beautiful garden and spa, it's a real gem.' www.bulgarihotels.com. Doubles from £418

LE PAVILLON DE LA REINE, PARIS

'It's right in the heart of the Marais, which is such a cute, lively part of town. A lot of our friends live around Place des Vosges – which is surrounded by art, shops and amazing restaurants – so when we stay here we feel right at home, tucked away in a small and elegant hotel.' www.pavillon-de-la-reine.com. Doubles from £304

ROCKHOUSE, JAMAICA

'This place is simple and beautiful. It's built on rocks right over the ocean, and sometimes waves hit against your little hut at night, so they don't really advise taking small children. But it's perfect otherwise.' www.rockhousehotel.com. Doubles from about £57

NO THANKS

'I don't know if things get lost in translation in France, or it's just the culture, but in certain Parisian hotels, I feel like I'm not that welcome. I've had my best and worst hotel experiences in that city.'
