

LE PAVILLON DE LA REINE
PARIS

What makes Pavillon de la Reine so different?

- A deeply romantic hideaway on the magical Place des Vosges in Le Marais, the oldest quartier in Paris, right in the heart of Paris
- Privately owned and family-run, with all the service, charm and elegance of a grand palace - with all the understated sophistication of a private home
- The only five-stars hotel on Place des Vosges – often referred to as the most beautiful square in the world
- The 56 individually-decorated guestrooms and suites, and the entire ground floor were designed by Didier Benderli of Kérylos Intérieurs
- Two new star suites were completed in March 2017 – Suite de la Reine and Suite Madame de Sévigné – each blending a wonderful sense of place with the impossibly chic nature of the hotel
- The interiors are a brilliant combination of antiques and sleek contemporary comfort - cosy but stylish; sophisticated and comfortable, with a wonderful sense of place

- All guests have access to the Spa de la Reine by Codage, with gymnasium, jacuzzi and hammam. There are two peaceful treatment rooms and a dedicated menu of new treatments especially for Pavillon de la Reine
- The hotel dates back to the 17th century, covered in greenery, and set back and hidden away from the galleries and cafés of the Place des Vosges by a private courtyard garden
- Pass through the secluded courtyard into the foyer, which feels like a private library, with intimate seating, stunning furniture and flowers everywhere
- Relax by the large stone fireplace in a comfortable chair, choose a drink from the honesty bar and admire the original oil paintings and antique furniture
- Enjoy a perfect breakfast in the lounge, then venture forth to explore the surrounding area.
- Le Marais is packed with fashionable boutiques by up-and-coming designers, as well as chic galleries and bars
- The area is steeped in history and fascinating private walking tours of the area are available exclusively through the hotel
- One of the two closest hotels to Musée Picasso, just a short stroll around the corner (the other is Hotel du Petit Moulin, Pavillon de la Reine's sister-hotel)
- Great for families, the Pavillon de la Reine has wonderfully spacious interconnecting rooms and the Place des Vosges is a safe haven for children. Let the kids practise their French with the local BCBG enfants in the sandpit when they come out to play after school
- Breakfast is served 0700 - 1030 am every day, 24-hour rooms service is available and the hotel is surrounded by atmospheric cafés and restaurants, full of locals
- Pavillon de la Reine is a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World
- Perfect for visitors wanting to venture off the beaten track – who enjoy the cachet of being away from the well-trodden tourist route
